2008 SEASON OUTLOOK

NEW STANDARDS THE TARGET FOR 2008 GOLDEN BEARS

The 2008 California volleyball team looks to set new standards for a program that is one of the fastest rising programs in the nation. For some, a trip to the NCAA championship semifinal match is an accomplishment both in and of itself. But for the Golden Bears, such a trip is but a stepping stone to an even bigger and brighter future. However, one thing Cal will not do is take its prior achievements for granted.

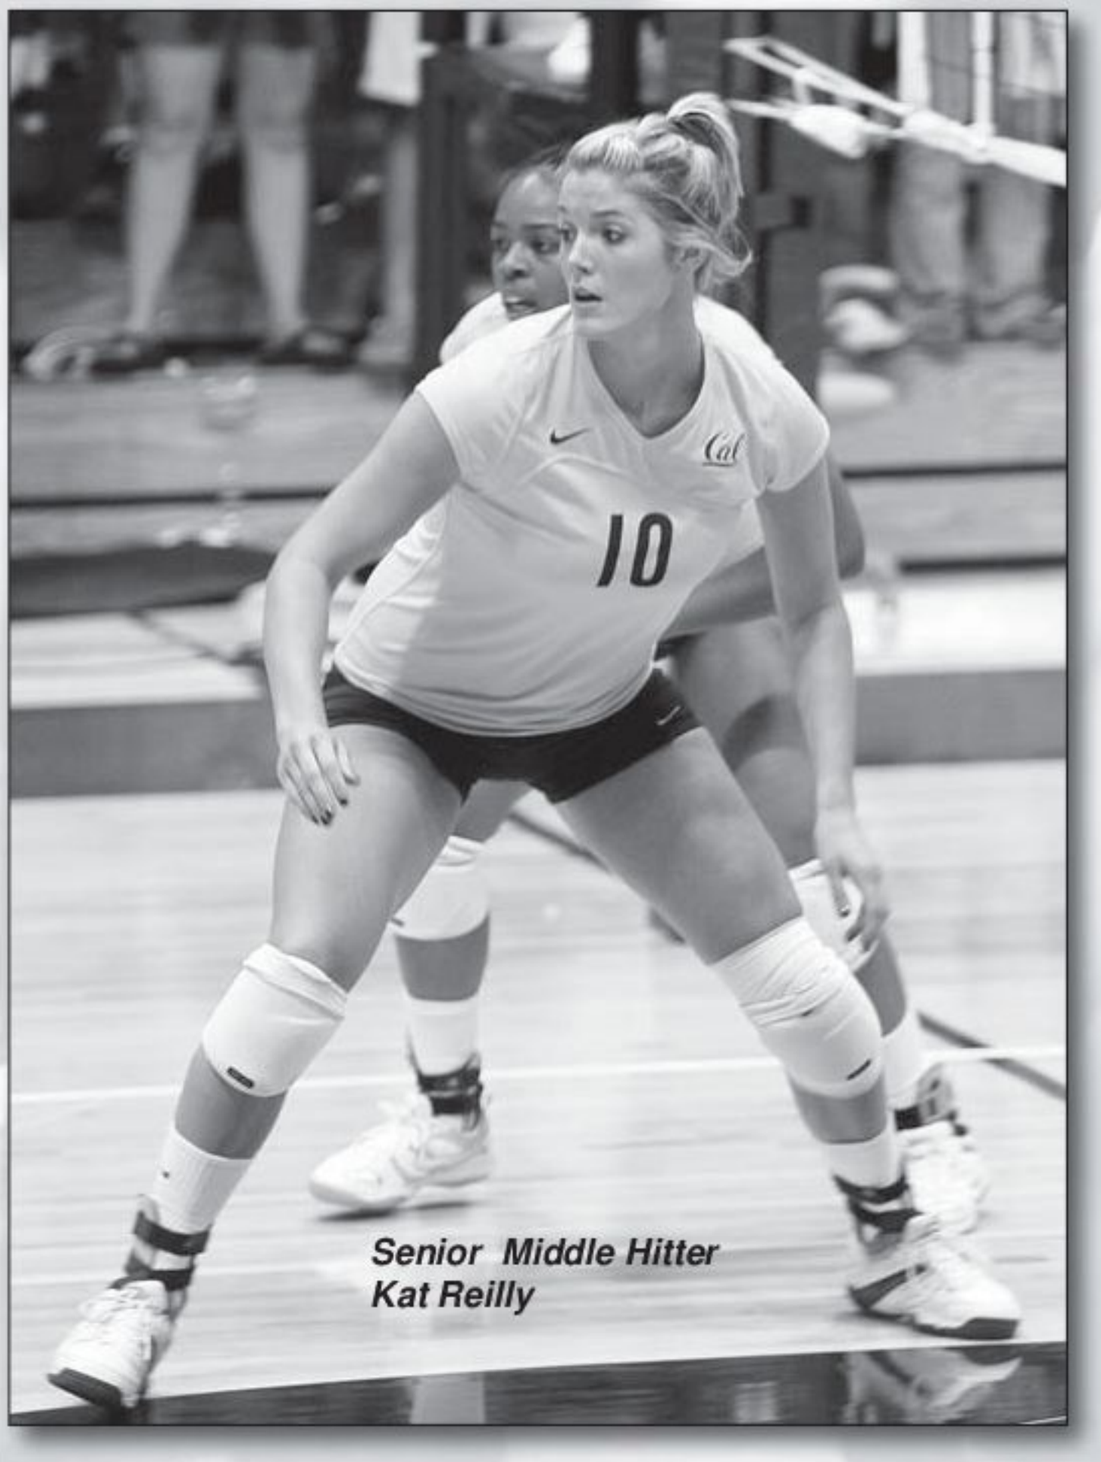
"Our team now knows what it takes to achieve a high level of success," said head coach Rich Feller. "After getting a taste of it last season, we are going to hit the court with a newly heightened sense of focus and determination. The great thing about our team is that the veterans also know not to take success for granted and that will be a key factor as the identity of this squad comes together."

When the 2007 Bears defeated Iowa State in the NCAA regional semifinal, it advanced further in the post-season than any Cal team in program history. Not satisfied with their successes, the Bears did themselves one better by knocking off defending NCAA Champion Nebraska, in the Wisconsin Regional to earn a trip to the NCAA championship semifinal match against eventual NCAA Champion Penn State, in Sacramento, Calif.



Senior Middle Hitter Kat Reilly

Feller believes the 2008 Bears are a unique blend of experience and youth; and of calculated precision and raw athletic talent. This year, Cal opponents will bear first-hand witness to the manifestation of a returning roster that boasts a junior outside hitter who received AVCA All-America honors, a senior class poised in leadership, a sophomore setter who came within six assists of breaking a single-season school record and a freshman class that brings with it two Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 Selections.

Leading the charge on the court for the Bears will be junior outside hitter Hana Cutura (Zagreb, Croatia). As a sophomore, Cutura put up impressive numbers, leading the team with 485 kills (4.22 kpg) and 566.5 points (4.92 ppg). She also poured in a team-high 37 service aces while adding 214 digs to her final stat line. Cutura's postseason performance earned her recognition as the NCAA Tournament Wisconsin Regional MVP.

Joining Cutura on the outside is senior outside hitter/middle hitter Morgan Beck (Coto De Caza, Calif.) who brings an abundance of experience to the court, having appeared in 94 matches over her three years with the Bears. As a junior, Beck posted 265 kills and 114 total blocks. Beck has earned honorable mention status on the All-Pac-10 team the last two years and enters her final season as Cal's ninth all-time leader in career blocks.

Although Beck's senior leadership will be invaluable to a young squad of Bears, she is not alone at the top. Senior middle hitter Kat Reilly (Plano, Texas) returns after posting strong numbers as a part-time starter in 2007. Reilly's 116 total blocks (1.36 bpg) and .325 hitting percentage (147k, 44e, 317att) each ranked second only to since-departed Ellen Orchard. Rounding out the senior class is outside hitter Am'ra Solomon (Los Angeles, Calif.). Although Solomon is limited in court experience, she is loaded with leadership ability and will have much to offer to her teammates after a successful stint this summer with the USA A2 Team.

Feller believes the leadership from his senior class will be critical to the success of the 2008 Bears. "Our seniors are three very different individuals," said Feller. "Hopefully, that allows for the underclassmen to have a variety of personalities and styles to draw from as this team builds its identity. I believe the diversity of this senior class is one of the major strengths to the make-up of our roster."

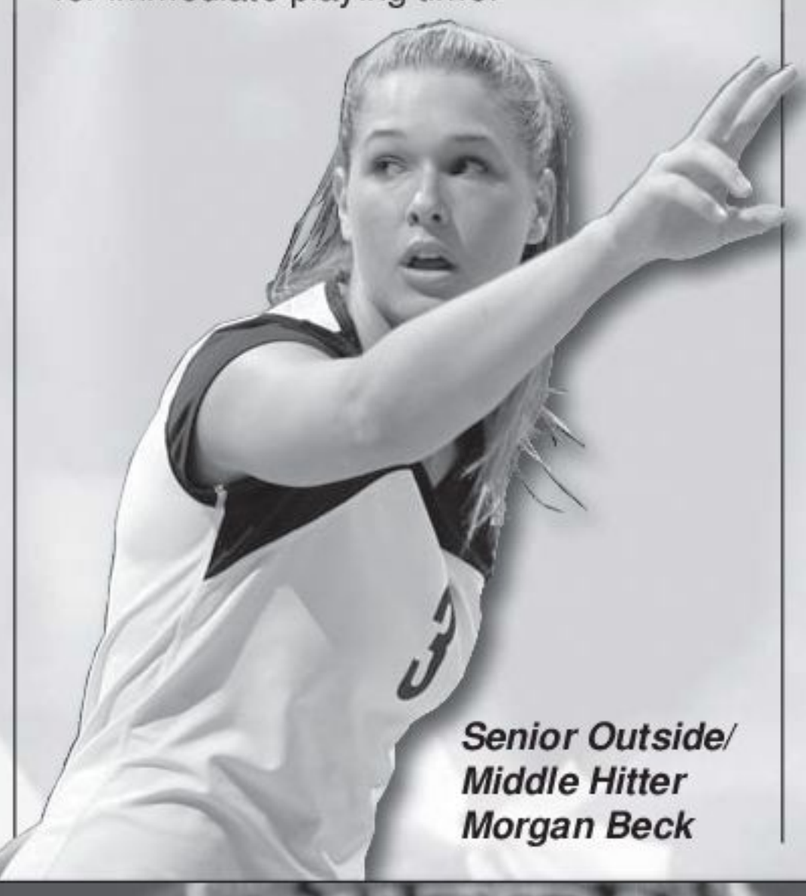
Setting the pace on the court for these Bears will be sophomore setter Carli Lloyd (Bonsall, Calif.). Thrust into the starting role early in her freshman campaign, Lloyd proved her mettle by completing her first season with 1,550 assists, six away from breaking the Cal single-season record held by Samantha Carter. In addition to setting her teammates up, Lloyd also notched 93 kills, 234 digs and 111 total blocks. Lloyd was named to the NCAA Wisconsin Regional All-Tournament team and also received honors as the Outstanding Setter in two preseason tournaments. Lloyd's phenomenal freshman season earned her a spot on the Pac-10 All-Freshmen team, and she is ready to take on an even larger role as the on-court leader.

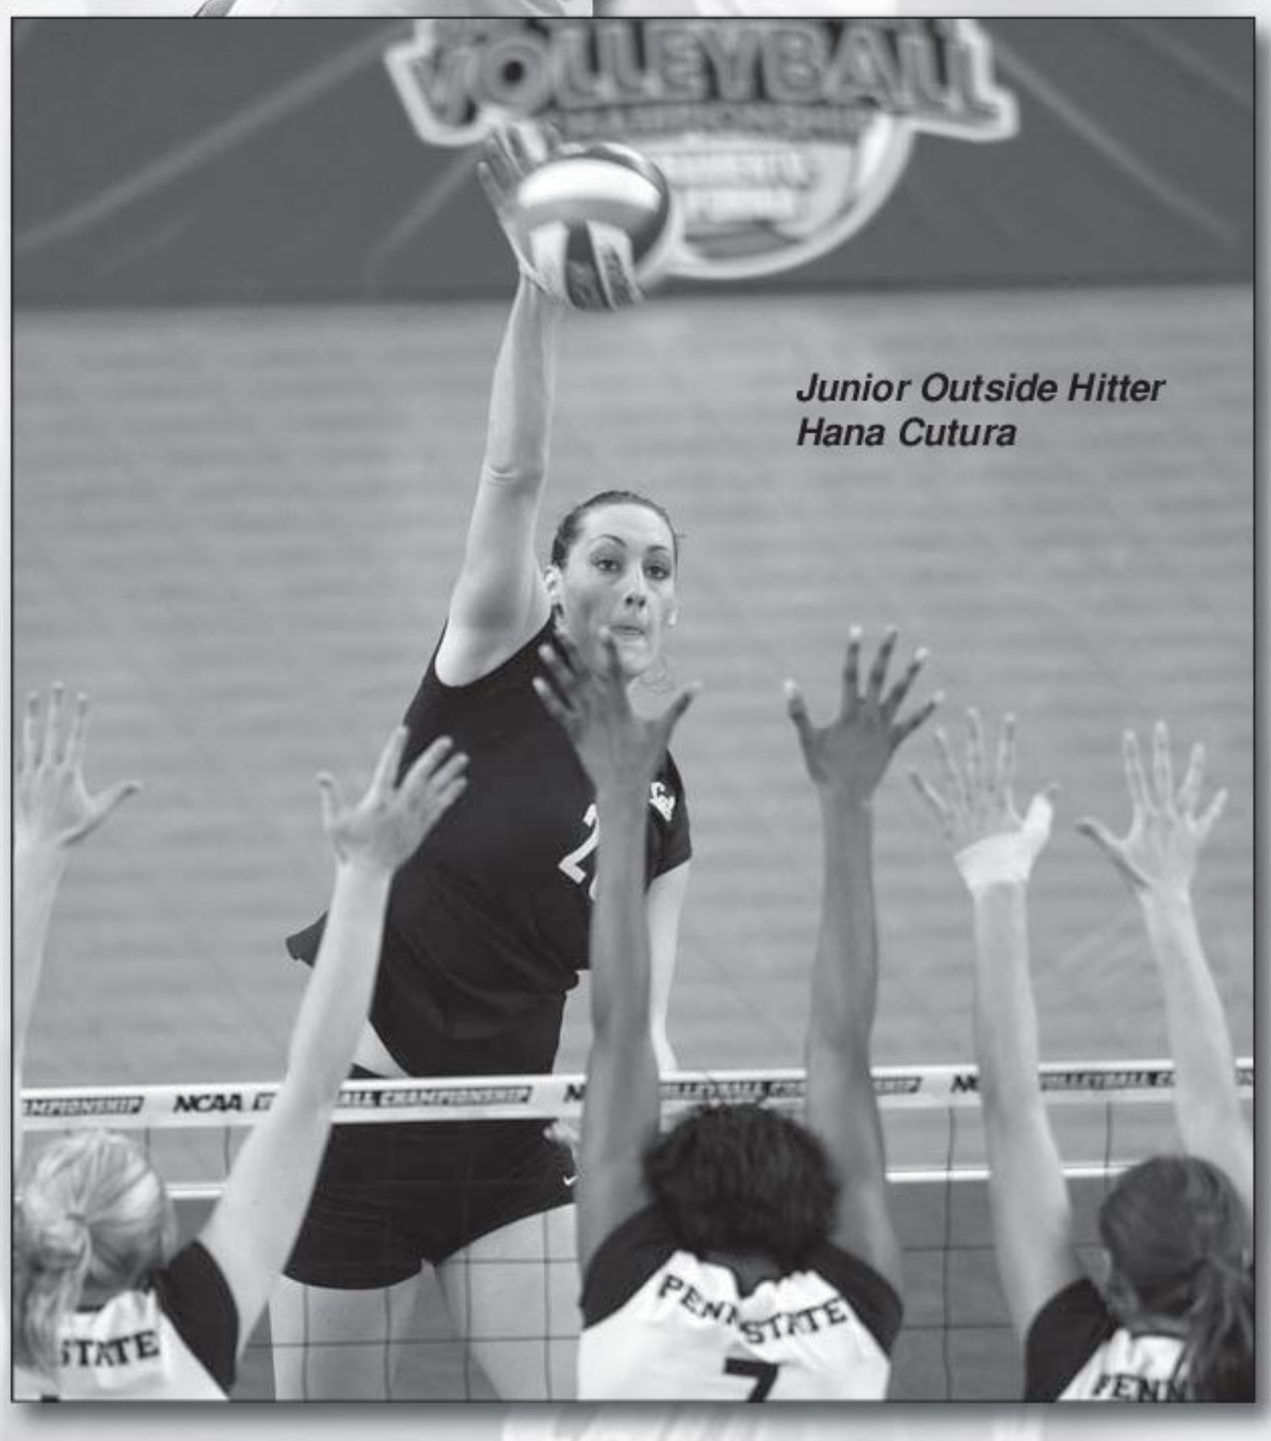
"Even though she is just a sophomore, Carli has already taken on such a big leadership role as the setter" said Feller. "She is out there in the trenches and she commands the attention of her teammates. She is truly one of the best communicators you will find on the collegiate volleyball court."

On the defensive side of the ball, Cal will look to junior libero Kristen Kathan (Moraga, Calif.) for guidance and consistency. Kathan's quickness helped her post Cal's ninth-best single-season mark for digs with 414 in 2007. Away from the court, Kathan's academic prowess was rewarded with an honorable mention to the Pac-10 All-Academic Team. Sophomore defensive specialist/libero Meagan Schmitt (Kentfield, Calif.) will also compete for playing time. Last but not least amongst returning players is junior middle hitter Mindi Wiley (Sonoma, Calif.). Wiley came on strong towards the end of the season, sharing time with fellow middle hitter, Reilly. Wiley's .307 hitting percentage (85k, 30e, 179att) ranked third on the team as she set new career high's in nearly every statistical category.

This season, the Bears welcome five newcomers to the team. Topping the list of fresh faces is phenom outside hitter Tarah Murrey (El Cerrito, Calif.). Murrey comes to Cal as one of 2007's most highly sought-after high school recruits in the country. Her impressive resume includes selection to the Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 and recognition as the 2008 Gatorade California Player of the Year. Also a Fab 50 selection, freshman middle hitter Shannon Hawari (Plano, Texas) looks to step in and battle for immediate playing time.



Senior Outside/ Middle Hitter Morgan Beck



Junior Outside Hitter Hana Cutura

Joining Murrey and Hawari in the freshman class are setter/defensive specialist Ashley Roe (Campbell, Calif.), setter Kristin Obermeyer (Campbell, Calif.) and defensive specialist/libero Katherine Gorman (Los Altos, Calif.).

"I think we have one of the best recruiting classes in the country" said Feller. "Murrey and Hawari have resumes that speak for themselves and we are looking for them to compete for playing time right from the outset of camp. Roe, Obermeyer and Gorman are three extremely hard-working and athletic players and we couldn't be happier that they each chose to come to Cal. They are each going to bring something special to our team."

This season, Feller looks to guide the Bears to a school-record seventh straight postseason appearance. In just his 10th year at Cal, Feller has solidified his name in the record books as the most successful coach in Cal volleyball history and hopes to improve on a phenomenal year in which his team produced two All-Americans and finished with a 26-8 record (12-6 Pac-10, fourth place). The squad's success garnered him recognition as the ASICS/Volleyball Magazine National Coach of the Year. He knows maintaining a high level of production won't be easy however.

"It's more difficult to repeat success than it is to achieve it the first time" said Feller, "We want to make sure that our team stays focused and remembers how hard they had to work in order to achieve their successes. The Pac-10 will be a great test for our team. The conference schedule truly prepares our team for all the NCAA Tournament can throw at us."

Cal will open the season by hosting two tournaments at Haas Pavilion. The Bears welcome St. John's to Haas Pavilion on Aug. 29 to kick off the Cal Molten Classic before they entertain DePaul, James Madison and UC Riverside in the Golden Bear Invitational on Sept. 5-6.

Taking to the road for the first time in 2008, the Bears will face Notre Dame, Cal Poly and host Minnesota at the Diet Coke Classic Invitational in Minneapolis, Minn. Next, the Bears will make the drive down Interstate-5 for the Crowne Plaza Volleyball Classic (Sept. 19-20).

Cal opens the Pac-10 slate by hosting Oregon and Oregon State on Sept. 26 and 27. The Bears will face all three California schools on consecutive weekends, first traveling to Stanford for the Big Spike on Oct. 19 before going to Los Angeles to take on UCLA and USC on Oct. 24 and 25. The Big Spike comes to Haas Pavilion on Nov. 14 before Cal completes the season with a Thanksgiving sandwich in Oregon for a Nov. 26 date with the Beavers and a Nov. 28 meeting with the Ducks.

CALIFORNIA HEAD COACH

RICH FELLER

10th Year at Cal (24th overall)

Rich Feller, in his 10th season with the Golden Bears, is undoubtedly the most successful women's volleyball coach in California history. Since he first stepped on campus in 1999, Feller has been able to craft the Golden Bears into a Pac-10 contender and a national powerhouse. The facts speak for themselves – a school-record six consecutive postseason appearances, four 20-win seasons in the past six years, three NCAA round of 16 appearances, six All-America selections and most recently, an appearance in the NCAA semifinals. Under Feller's leadership, the Bears have not only made the NCAA tournament six straight times, they have won six consecutive NCAA first-round matches.

Feller's achievements on the court have not gone unnoticed as he was honored as Volleyball Magazine's 2007 National Coach of the Year. Since leading Cal to its first NCAA appearance in 13 years in 2002, Feller has firmly established the Bears as a top-tier team in the toughest volleyball conference in the nation – the Pac-10. Last season, he led Cal to its first-ever appearance in the NCAA semifinals after the Bears defeated Iowa State and then-defending NCAA champion Nebraska to claim the Wisconsin Regional. As one of the final four teams standing, Feller coached Cal in a heated battle against eventual champion Penn State, falling 3-0 to the Nittany Lions at Arco Arena in Sacramento, Calif. The Bears finished the season with a 26-8 overall record, 12-6 in the Pac-10 for fourth place and a school-record No. 4 ranking in the final AVCA poll of collegiate women's volleyball teams.

Feller's guidance brought his players some well-deserved attention as well, as senior outside hitter Angie Pressey earned her second selection to the AVCA All-America team and sophomore outside hitter Hana Cutura garnered her first selection as a member of the second team. Cutura also received MVP recognition in the NCAA Wisconsin Regional. Feller's direction helped the Bears set new school records for total blocks in a single season (454) and hitting percentage in a single match (.702 vs. UNC-Wilmington on Sept. 1).

In 2006, he led Cal to its second-ever NCAA regional after the Bears defeated LSU and host Cal Poly, respectively, in the NCAA first and second rounds in San Luis Obispo, Calif. Feller then brought his squad to the NCAA Regional in Austin, Texas, where Cal lost three close games to No. 2-ranked Stanford to conclude the year 22-10 and ranked No. 13 in the final AVCA poll.

Now 464-275 (.628) overall in 23 years as a college coach and 165-108 (.604) in nine years as Cal's mentor, Feller has his 2008 squad poised for another postseason appearance. Beyond taking the Bears to the postseason, he has generated excitement in the local volleyball community by enabling Cal to host the NCAA first and second rounds at Haas Pavilion during the 2003 and 2004 campaigns. His players are closely connected to the community through their commitment to camps and clinics offered throughout the year. This summer, Feller coordinated the hosting of the USA Women's Indoor Volleyball team and a scrimmage for the public in its final week before departing for the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, China.

Cal's 2003 campaign was especially sweet for the veteran coach as Feller guided the Bears to a 25-7 record and the school's first-ever NCAA round of 16 berth with victories over Saint Mary's and Michigan. Cal had the best single-season winning percentage (.781) in school history, captured a since-tied school-record 12 Pac-10 victories and posted back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since 1981-83. The Bears also won 16 consecutive matches to start the year, defeated Stanford for the first time since 1982 and earned their then-highest national ranking ever (No. 5 on Oct. 13, 2003).

The accomplishments of the Bears' coach and his staff did not go unnoticed as Feller was named both the 2003 AVCA Pacific Region Co-Coach of the Year and Pac-10 Coach of the Year. He was the first Cal volleyball coach to garner regional coach of the year honors, and was the first Bear mentor selected for league coaching honors since Chris Stanley was NorPac Conference Coach of the Year in 1982.

Before arriving at Berkeley, Feller was Rich Feller has led Cal volleyball to six consecutive postseasons and an appearance in the NCAA national semifinal in 2007.

an assistant coach for the United States Women's National Volleyball Team from 1997-98. Prior to his stint as a USA national team assistant, he was a highly successful head coach at Colorado State. In his 14 years directing the Rams, Feller compiled a 299-167 (.642) record with eight NCAA Tournament appearances, two conference titles, 12 top-25 rankings and several All-America, all-conference and all-academic athletes. In Feller's first season at Colorado State in 1983, he led his team to a 26-12 record, a top-20 ranking and a NCAA Tournament appearance for the first time in school history. In 1987, Feller was named AVCA Regional Coach of the Year.

From 1980-83, Feller was the top assistant to Taras Liskevych (USA Olympic coach from 1985-96 and current Oregon State coach) at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, helping the Tigers to second, fourth and fifth-place national finishes in his three years with the program.

Feller with his wife, Stacey, at the 2003 NCAA Regional in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Growing up in Palo Alto, Feller already had ties to the Bay Area before arriving at Cal in 1999. His father, David, earned his Ph.D. at Cal and his mother, Bernice, was a Cal undergraduate.

"The opportunity to coach at Cal and to have the challenge of competing in the Pac-10 Conference was a dream come true," said Feller. "Any coach who is involved in college volleyball would relish the chance to coach in the Pac-10 and to come to Cal. One of my goals was to coach in the Pac-10. Working at Cal is one of the best jobs in the nation."

Feller, 57, who earned his bachelor's degree in recreation administration from San Diego State in 1973, lives in the Montclair District of the Oakland Hills with his wife, Stacey. He has three children – Evan (24), Ashleigh (22) and Ryan (20); and a stepson, Brad Bertolet (22).

ASSISTANT COACHES

CHRIS BIGELOW

Assistant Coach
10th Year at Cal

A key component and the veteran of the Cal volleyball coaching staff is 10th-year assistant and chief recruiting coordinator Chris Bigelow, a former assistant at Wisconsin and Texas. Bigelow was hired by Rich Feller as a Cal assistant coach in January of 1999. She has since been instrumental in securing recruiting classes ranked among the top 10 in the nation for the Golden Bears, including a No. 5 ranking in 2005 and a school-best No. 3 ranking by PrepVolleyball.com in 2006.

"To recruits around the country, Chris Bigelow is the voice of Cal volleyball, and to club and college coaches, she is one of the top recruiters in the nation," said Feller. "No one works harder than Chris. Besides being a great recruiter, she is also an outstanding training coach with a special interest in video tape analysis."

Bigelow built an impressive array of coaching credentials before arriving at Cal. She was an assistant coach for Bill Neville at Montana State from 1978-81, before taking over as head coach of the Bobcats from 1981-83. Bigelow then became an assistant to current USC volleyball coach Mick Haley at Texas from 1984-91, helping lead the Longhorns to seven conference championships, three final four appearances and one national championship in 1988.

From 1991-93, Bigelow worked as a volleyball TV color commentator for the Southwest Conference and University of Texas radio.

In 1993-94, Bigelow coached St. Stephens Episcopal High School in Austin, Texas, to a 30-3 season. She then accepted an offer to become John Cook's assistant coach at Wisconsin, helping the Badgers to three NCAA tournament appearances, one NCAA round of 16 finish, two NCAA quarterfinal appearances and one Big Ten Co-Championship from 1995-98.

Bigelow was a three-sport athlete at Eastern Washington and a member of the USA Volleyball training squad from 1973-74. She graduated from Eastern Washington in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. Bigelow received her master's degree from Montana State in physical education in 1980.

MATT McSHANE

Assistant Coach
Fourth Year at Cal

Matt McShane joined the Cal volleyball staff on Feb. 2, 2005, and made an immediate impact as he helped the Golden Bears achieve a school-record fourth consecutive NCAA postseason appearance. McShane and his fellow Bear coaches then took it a step further in 2006 as Cal advanced to an NCAA regional for only the second time in school history. Last season, his offensive and defensive schemes combined to give Cal the edge over such national powers as Iowa State and defending NCAA champion Nebraska to put the Bears into the NCAA championship semifinal match for the first time in program history.

The veteran coach arrived in Berkeley after spending four years as an assistant coach at the University of Utah. In 2004, the Utes went 24-7 overall and 13-1 in league action and captured a share of their first-ever Mountain West Conference title.

"I am very pleased to have Matt McShane as part of our staff," said Rich Feller. "Matt is known around the country as one of the top training coaches in college volleyball. He has years of experience in high-level volleyball, collegiate and international. Matt and I have known each other for years and spent 15 months together working as assistant coaches for USA National team in 1997 and 1998. He is the perfect fit for this position as we continue striving for excellence in our program."

Before joining the Utah staff, McShane was an associate head coach at the University of New Mexico from 1987-00. In 11 years in Albuquerque, he helped guide the Lobos to a 189-127 record, two conference championships and six trips to the NCAA tournament.

In the summer of 2007, McShane was an assistant coach for USA Volleyball's National A2 team, coaching former Cal standout Angie Pressey. During the summer of 2002, he also served as the head coach for the USA National A2 Team. In the summer of 2001, he was the head coach for the Intermountain Volleyball Association (IVA) High Performance Team that toured Europe.

In 1996, McShane was named an assistant coach of the USA Women's National team at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo. While with the U.S. National team, McShane designed and ran practice sessions, did video analysis of Team USA and other major teams in the world, and prepared scouting reports on U.S. opponents.

McShane's coaching background also includes assisting current USA Women's National Indoor Volleyball team coach "Jenny" Lang Ping with the Yaohan International Volleyball Team in 1996. The team was comprised of the best American and Russian players who competed against the Chinese and Cuban National teams in cities throughout China.

Additionally, McShane served as an assistant coach at Brigham Young University from 1980-82. He is a member of the USAV Coaches Accreditation Program Cadre (CAP Level III), and each year, he runs numerous clinics throughout the U.S., teaching other college, high school and junior coaches the fundamentals of volleyball.

As an undergraduate at UC Santa Barbara, McShane played on the only intercollegiate team to win the USAV Open National Championship. The UCSB teams finished second in the NCAA Championships in 1974 and '75, and finished third in the NCAA Regional Championships in 1976. He was an All-American for the Gauchos in 1974.

McShane earned his bachelor's degree from UC Santa Barbara in 1977 and his master's degree from BYU in 1982. While at BYU, he played on the men's club team that finished third at the USAV Open National Championship in 1981.

DAVID DANTES

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Second Year at Cal

David Dantes enters his second season as the volunteer assistant coach for the Cal women's volleyball program.

Dantes, 23, arrived in Berkeley after spending the 2006 season as the head women's club volleyball coach at Boston University. While at Boston, he led the Terriers to the school's first regional championship and a national ranking as high as 11th. His club captured four of nine tournaments during the year, competing in the Northeast Women's Volleyball Club League and the National Intramural-Recreational Sports Association.

Before heading BU's women's club volleyball program, Dantes was an investment analyst for Gravitas Prime Inc. in Makati, Philippines, as well as a communications intern for the Overseas Development Institute in London, England.

Dantes earned his bachelor of arts degree in political science, with a minor in religion, from Boston University in May 2007. He competed for BU's men's club volleyball team from 2003-05 and was a two-year starter as an outside hitter.

CHELSEA WHITE

Director of Operations
Second Year at Cal

In her role with the Golden Bears, White is in charge of all aspects of the volleyball program's administrative duties, as well as coordinating team travel and assisting with special events. White came to Berkeley after spending a year as an assistant to Dean Judy Olian at the UCLA Anderson School of Management. Prior to working at UCLA, White was a Client Service Associate at Smith Barney in Sacramento, Calif.

White graduated from Iona College in New Rochelle, N.Y., in 2006 with a degree in political science, and was a member of the Delta Epsilon Sigma National Scholastic Honor Society with a 3.92 GPA. She was also the starting libero on the Iona volleyball team, finishing her senior season ranked No. 1 in the Metro Atlantic Conference and sixth in the NCAA in digs per game (6.12), and was selected the league's 2005 Defensive Player of the Year. White also competed at American River College in Sacramento, where she was named the school's 2004 Female Athlete of the Year and was a member of the California All-State and All-Northern California Volleyball teams.

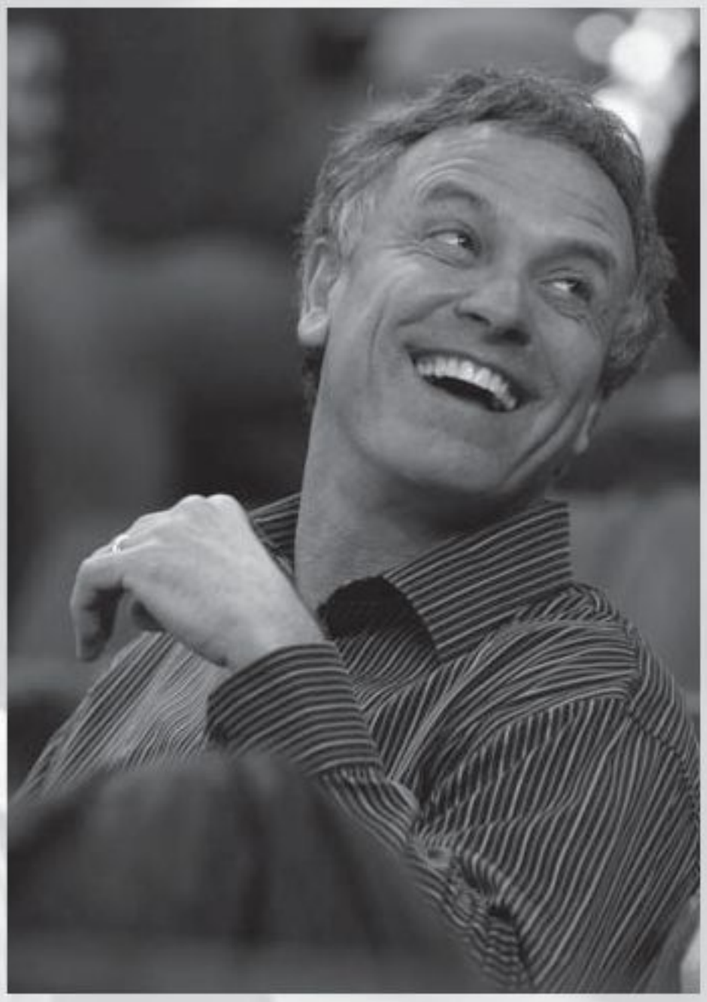
GOLDEN BEARS REACH 2007 NCAA FINAL FOUR



At approximately 9:45 on the night of Saturday, Dec. 8, 2007, Cal All-American outside hitter Angie Pressey put down her 20th kill of the match to defeat Nebraska, sending the Golden Bears to their first NCAA national semifinal match in school history. The stunning 3-0 win over the defending NCAA champion Cornhuskers secured the Wisconsin regional crown for Cal and launched players, coaches and fans alike into a celebratory frenzy. All-American outside hitter Hana Cutura earned Wisconsin regional MVP honors, and was joined on the regional all-tournament team by Pressey and setter Carli Lloyd.

Just one night earlier, this Cal squad had already begun drafting the newest chapter in the Bear history books. A 3-0 victory against the Cyclones of Iowa State put the Bears past the NCAA regional semifinal for the first time ever.

The Bears concluded the most successful campaign in the program's history with their appearance in the national semifinal where they fell to eventual national champion Penn State in Sacramento, Calif. The 26-8 overall record and unforeseen success of these Bears earned the team a No. 4 ranking in the final AVCA poll, and saw head coach Rich Feller honored as the 2007 Asics/Volleyball Magazine National Head Coach of the Year.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

SIMPLY THE BEST

There is no other way to aptly describe America's top public university. There is no other way to describe one of the elite academic settings in the world – especially one that also includes one of America's most successful athletic departments.

The University of California blends the best of all worlds. Overlooking the scenic San Francisco Bay and ranked as the nation's top public university by the U.S. News and World Report, the flagship campus of the state of California also features an athletic program that annually finishes among the leaders in the Directors' Cup standings, which rates the overall success of America's athletic departments.

Cal attracts what many believe to be the finest applicant pool in the United States. The university features a diverse student-body population. The University of California offers 300 degree programs, and 35 of the school's 36 graduate programs are ranked among America's top 10. Cal's 35 programs among the top 10 is No. 1 among all universities in the country, as is its 32 "distinguished" programs, as rated by the National Research Council.

The library is ranked third in the country, as judged by Association of Research Libraries with 9 million volumes in 18 campus libraries.

The faculty features seven Nobel Laureates, 128 members of the National Academy of Sciences, 16 MacArthur Fellows, 83 Fulbright Scholars, three Pulitzer Prize winners and more Guggenheim Fellows (139) than any other university in America.

BERKELEY AND THE BAY AREA

The San Francisco Bay Area is a major metropolitan area of approximately six million people and one of the most scenic regions in the United States. The Bay Area includes the major cities of San Francisco and Oakland, as well as Berkeley, home of the world-renowned University of California. Just south is the city of San Jose and the Silicon Valley, home to many of the world's high-tech companies. The Bay Area also lies within easy driving distance of the high Sierra resorts of Lake Tahoe and Yosemite, the Monterey/Carmel peninsula, the world famous Napa wine country, and the spectacular Mendocino Coast.

Everyone knows "The City" - San Francisco - from countless photographs, movies and television shows that capture its magic. It is a city built on a series of more than 40 hills, offering panoramic views of every kind. The hub of a nine-county complex and the financial and insurance capital of the world, San Francisco has a resident population of about 740,000. San Francisco is situated on a 46.6 square-mile peninsula bounded on the west by the Pacific Ocean, on the north by the Golden Gate strait, and from north to east by the San Francisco Bay. The City has been named the world's top city twice and the top city in the U.S. in 17 of the last 18 years by Condé Nast Traveler.

The San Francisco Bay is spanned by two landmarks, the Golden Gate and San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridges, and graced by four islands: Alcatraz, Angel, Yerba Buena and Treasure. The area is easily navigated by car, BART (Bay Area Rapid Transit), bus or ferry, making it easily accessible to all.

SAN FRANCISCO

WE'RE NO. 1!

- Money magazine (2007) chose San Francisco as "the best place to live" among the 300 biggest U.S. metropolitan areas.
- A special report posted on Forbes.com (May 2008) ranked San Francisco as America's "best city for the outdoors."
- San Francisco bested Seattle as the fittest of America's most populous cities according to a report by the American College of Sports Medicine (May 2008).
- Readers of Travel & Leisure magazine (2006) selected San Francisco as their favorite city in the world thanks to its "red-hot restaurant scene and booming economy."
- San Francisco is rated the No. 1 city in the U.S. by Condé Nast Traveler (October 2007)

Located across the Bay Bridge from San Francisco, Oakland is a city of 400,000, jam-packed with exciting attractions, stimulating arts, and an ideal climate. Oakland's charm exceeds its man-made wonders, as its tumbling hills, vast forests, hiking and riding trails, beautiful lakes and numerous parks provide a natural escape for those who prefer nature over an urban environment.

Berkeley, just a 12-mile drive from San Francisco, is situated on 18.8 square miles with a population of 103,000 people. A study in contrasts, Berkeley is a small town with a big-city character. With its world-renowned university, global population and rich diversity of cultural arts, Berkeley reflects and affects the rest of the country.

Sports fans can see it all in the Bay Area - professional football (San Francisco 49ers, Oakland Raiders), professional basketball (Golden State Warriors), professional baseball (San Francisco Giants, Oakland Athletics), professional hockey (San Jose Sharks), and outstanding collegiate competition.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

One of the real success stories for the University of California is the development and growth of a comprehensive academic support program for its student-athletes - the Athletic Study Center.

In 1984, campus officials and Athletic Department administrators decided that a greater emphasis needed to be placed on helping Cal student-athletes with their academic pursuits. The Athletic Study Center was thus born and charged with developing an academic support program geared to the needs of NCAA Division I student-athletes. It was a significant development for an academically oriented institution such as Cal to recognize the special needs required for a modern student-athlete's success both as an athletic competitor on the field of play and in the classroom.

ATHLETIC STUDY CENTER STAFF

PROGRAM FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

The Athletic Study Center, which is housed within the Division of Undergraduate Education, is the tutorial and academic support program for the nearly 1,000 student-athletes at Cal. Centrally located in the Cesar Chavez Student Center, the program provides a spacious and comfortable arboretum for quiet study, separate classrooms for individual and group tutorials, and a computer lab for word processing and required course work.

Geared around the understanding of the amount of time student-athletes must devote to practice, training, physical therapy and team travel, the program creates an environment where students can cultivate good study habits, receive individual or group tutoring and obtain counseling from academic advisors.

TUTORIAL PROGRAM

The Tutorial Program promotes and enhances students' academic skills and progress by providing individual tutoring, group workshops, study groups, credit courses and intensive special programs. The Athletic Study Center has between 50-60 tutors on staff per semester to guarantee that students receive the best possible support. Tutorial sessions are also offered at night enabling student-athletes to receive help after practices when they have more time to devote to studying.

ADVISING PROGRAM

The Advising Program offers a broad range of services to meet the unique needs of student-athletes, including assistance in understanding and complying with University, college and NCAA requirements, developing time management skills and resolving personal issues unique to student-athletes.

During the freshman year, advisors typically try to help student-athletes make a successful academic transition from high school, while during the sophomore year, they assist student-athletes in making decisions on appropriate majors and fields of study. For the final two years, advisors take more of an exiting approach, ensuring that proper academic progress is being made towards graduation while referring juniors and seniors to areas on campus that can help with career planning.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

In addition, the Athletic Study Center offers a Summer Bridge adjunct program designed to help ease the transition from high school to college. The primary components for the program include writing and math workshops, an advising workshop, study skills seminars and an evening tutorial program.

Another special program offered is Peer Advising. Peer advisors provide academic and campus life guidance for new intercollegiate student-athletes. They are selected from junior and senior student-athletes who assist in developing programs to further address the needs of student-athletes.

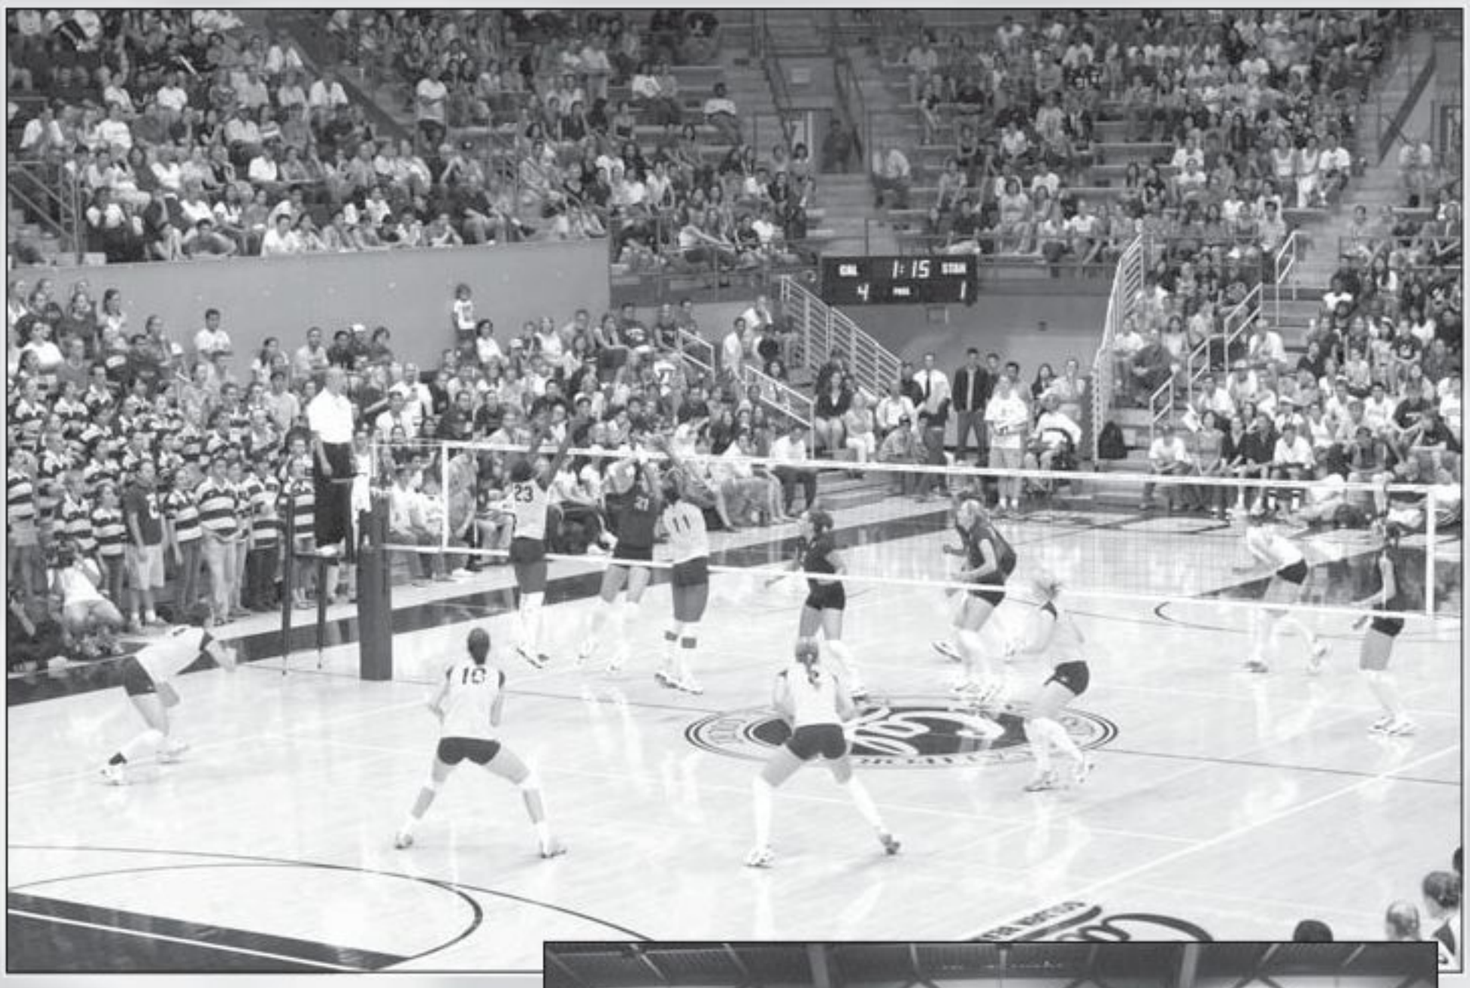
HAAS PAVILION



The Walter A. Haas Jr. Pavilion has made a powerful statement about the stature of athletics at Cal. Along with its most important function - a state-of-the-art volleyball and basketball arena with capacity doubled to 11,877 - it adds space for many men's and women's intercollegiate programs, recreational and community activities, and athletic administration.

An innovative plan had been developed to build a shell around the original Harmon Gym structure. The exterior complements the former Harmon Gym's distinctive architecture. The roof of the Haas Pavilion was raised to make room for a bowl-shaped arena, a novel design that increases capacity on all four sides, yet creates good views of the court from every seat.

The Pavilion's in-the-round seating gives every visitor a direct sight line to the action on the court. The 11,877-seat arena includes up to 1,500 chairback seats at premium locations and 3,000 seats for students. The court will continue to be named in honor of Pete Newell, legendary coach of Cal's 1959 NCAA championship team.

The Pavilion will be the focal point for Cal's many athletic, recreational and cultural activities. Inside the Pavilion's east entrance, a large lobby will lead visitors to a new team store. Added concession areas and concourses will accommodate larger crowds.

On the concourse level, a Spectator Club provides a spacious yet intimate meeting spot for special friends of Cal. A new plaza at the Pavilion's east entrance will reach from Bancroft Way to Strawberry Creek, creating a new campus gateway and an ideal location for outdoor gatherings.

Construction began on the project in June 1997. Harmon Gym, which opened in 1933 and had a capacity of 6,578 seats, was home to Cal volleyball and basketball for 65 seasons.

Cal volleyball had the distinction of being the first-ever athletic event in the new Haas Pavilion when the Bears hosted Arizona State Oct. 15, 1999 (attendance: 3,125). The volleyball match was prior to the men's and women's basketball team's Midnight Madness, which celebrated the opening of the basketball season. Cal volleyball also had the honor of hosting the first-ever NCAA championship event at Haas Pavilion, as the Bears hosted the 2003 NCAA first and second rounds, defeating both Saint Mary's and Michigan, 3-0, to advance to the round of 16 in Honolulu, Hawaii. Cal again hosted the NCAA first and second rounds in 2004, defeating Pacific, 3-2, before falling to Saint Mary's, 3-2.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

An integral part of Cal volleyball is the strength and conditioning program under the direction of Hank Behrens, who utilizes a comprehensive approach to coaching the team. The program's philosophy is geared towards helping each student-athlete achieve the highest level of athletic development, by teaching how the components, strength, speed, and flexibility fit together.

The enhancement of these components results in maximizing their force production thus improving their power on the court. Motivating, educating and helping to reach maximum athletic development is the primary focus of the Cal program.

The training regimen at Cal is a year-round process that emphasizes speed, strength and flexibility. With closely monitored workouts that involve a great deal of individual instruction and attention, student-athletes are taught the correct techniques and progressed to increase their ability perform at their peak during competition.

Out of all the components flexibility is a key. It is essential for proper lifting, improving running mechanics needed for acceleration and deceleration, and developing greater explosiveness, all which are essential for playing volleyball.

Athlete workouts are closely monitored by a conditioning staff that works in collaboration with the entire sports medicine team (doctors, athletic trainers, physical therapists, nutritionists, etc.) to ensure the health and safety of all of student-athletes. In this way, Cal's strength and conditioning program is a vital component linking the "full circle" of a student-athlete's physical development from conditioning through rehabilitation and re-conditioning.

Former standout Samantha Carter trains under the supervision of Hank Behrens in the Mary and Frank J. Schlessinger Weight Training Complex in Haas Pavilion.

The Mary and Frank J. Schlessinger Weight Training Complex in Haas Pavilion features six Olympic platforms, more than 4,000 pounds of Olympic bars and bumper plates, and an array of aerobic and anaerobic equipment. The picturesque facility overlooks Evans Diamond baseball field and Edwards Track Stadium and is adjacent to the Paul F. White Sports Medicine Center.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Golden Bear student-athletes are privileged to be supported by one of the top medical staffs in college athletics, along with some of the most modern training and rehabilitation equipment in the country. The comprehensive program features state-of-the-art facilities as well as a staff of acclaimed practitioners of all areas of sports medicine.

In addition to facilities within Haas Pavilion, Cal athletes also use University Health Services, which oversees and supervises sports medicine services to all injured or ailing Golden Bear athletes. The University Health Services is recognized as one of the most comprehensive ambulatory health centers in the country. It is housed in the Tang Center, which provides access to physician clinics, laboratory services, X-ray and other ancillary services such as sports nutrition and counseling.

In the Haas Pavilion, Cal volleyball enjoys a new training facility, the Paul F. White Sports Medicine Center.

Athletic trainer Linda Smith tapes a student-athlete in the Paul F. White Sports Medicine Center.

The athletic medicine area is supervised by Bill Coysh, Ph.D., who is involved in the day-to-day management of the program as well as being actively engaged in sports psychology.

The staff features specialists from the fields of orthopedic surgery, family medicine, internal medicine, physiatry and podiatry. The medical staff, with their diverse backgrounds and areas of expertise, has vast experience treating injured athletes on every level of competition, including Olympic and professional athletes.

Cal's athletic training staff boasts 13 certified athletic trainers and 30 student athletic trainers. The staff tends to the day-to-day health care needs of Cal athletes in 27 different sports, including the evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries and illnesses. The trainers also provide coverage at home and away athletic contests, and practices are staffed on a full-time basis.

Cal's comprehensive health care program is designed to meet the every need of today's student-athlete competing for the school.

Entering the 2008-09 season, the Pacific-10 Conference continues to uphold its tradition as the "Conference of Champions."® Pac-10 members have claimed an incredible 159 NCAA team titles over the past 18 seasons, for an average of more than eight championships per academic year.

Even more impressive is the breadth of the Pac-10's success, as those 159 team titles have come in 26 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-10 has led the nation in NCAA Championships 42 of the last 48 years and finished second five times.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievement, the Pac-10 has captured 372 NCAA titles (259 men's, 113 women's), far outdistancing the runner-up Big Ten Conference's 217 titles.

The Pac-10 captured 13 NCAA titles in 2007-08 to lead the nation, finishing just one shy of the all-time Division I record of 14 titles, set by the Pac-10 in 1996-97. It should be noted that the Pac-10 total does not include CALIFORNIA's national championship in men's rugby or STANFORD's national championship in women's synchronized swimming, as they are not counted as NCAA titles. The Pac-10 led the nation with the most NCAA titles in women's sports with eight.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions as well, claiming 1,162 NCAA individual crowns.

Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 27 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 19 occasions. Overall, the Pac-10 has captured 113 NCAA women's crowns, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second with 72. Pac-10 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 20 softball titles, 18 tennis crowns, 13 of the last 18 volleyball titles, 12 of the last 19 trophies in golf and 10 in swimming and diving.

Pac-10 women athletes shine nationally on an individual basis as well, having captured an unmatched 511 NCAA individual titles, an average of more than 18 champions per season.

The Pac-10 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two other women's sports.

PAC-10 WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

There is little argument that the Pacific-10 Conference is the nation's strongest in the sport of women's volleyball. Since the beginning of the NCAA Volleyball Championships in 1981, a Pac-10 institution has won the national title 13 times, and finished as runner-up on an additional 12 occasions.

Only one conference in the nation has sent each of its members to at least one NCAA Tournament - the Pac-10. The conference has routinely sent four or more representatives each season to the NCAA Tournament, topped by eight participants in 2002. Five NCAA Championship matches have featured Pac-10 teams battling each other for the national crown.

Pac-10 volleyball history dates back to 1986, when the Conference began sponsoring women's athletics. Since then, over 85 Pac-10 athletes have garnered All-America honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). Those individuals have collected over 140 All-America certificates, including eight AVCA National Player of the Year winners.

Cal has made 11 NCAA Tournament appearances (1982, '83, '87, '88, '89, '02, '03, '04, '05, '06 and '07), making the round of 16 for the first time in school history in 2003, and again in 2006 and 2007. The trip in 2007 yielded the best result yet as the Bears advanced to the NCAA championship semifinal for the first time in school history. Cal also finished fifth in the 1991 National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), and was 10th at the 1981 AIAW National Championship.
